UNDRIP Implementation

Braiding International, Domestic and Indigenous Laws

SIDE EVENT

July 13, 2017, 1:15 - 2:45 p.m.

Room XXVII, Palais des Nations, Geneva

Lunch is provided

Join leading Canadian Indigenous legal academics and practitioners for a discussion on implementing the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) in Canada. The “braiding” of international, domestic and Indigenous laws is the guiding metaphor for this discussion, through which we can begin to reimagine what a nation-to-nation relationship could mean.

Based in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, CIGI is an independent, non-partisan think tank with an objective and uniquely global perspective. CIGI’s research, opinions and public voice make a difference in today’s world by bringing clarity and innovative thinking to global policy making.

Lunch will be provided during this side event, and a special report on human rights, Indigenous rights, Indigenous languages and the implementation of UNDRIP in Canada will be distributed.
