

Irrelevant or Indispensable?

Paul Heinbecker, editor, and Patricia Goff, editor

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments

List of Acronyms

1. Introduction

Paul Heinbecker and Patricia Goff

From Ideas to Action

2. The United Nations: Adapting to the Twenty-first Century

Louise Fréchette 9

3. The Millennium Project: From Words to Action

Jeffrey Sachs 19

4. UN Reform and the High-level Panel Report on Threats, Challenges, and Change

Lord David Hannay 25

5. Implementing the Secretary General's Report, "In Larger Freedom"

Bruce Jones 33

Freedom from Want

6. The Monterrey Consensus: Developing the Policy Innovations

Nitin Desai 43

7. Ensuring Adequate Resources to Meet the Millennium Development Goals

John W. McArthur 63

Freedom from Fear

8. WMD and Terrorism: Can the UN Help to Keep the Genie in the Bottle?

Jayantha Dhanapala 79

9. Legal and Legitimate Use of Force under the UN Charter: A Critical Analysis of the Report of the High-level Panel

Tom Farer 89

10. Small Arms, Big Killers

Keith Krause 105

Living in Dignity

11. Freedom from Fear: Effective, Efficient, and Equitable Security

Ramesh Thakur 115

12. The UN Reform Agenda and Human Rights

Kenneth Roth 131

Institutional Innovation

13. The UN Security Council: Reform or Enlarge?

Edward C. Luck 143

14. Working Better Together: Implementing the High-level Panel's Recommendations on Peacebuilding

Shepard Forman 153

Mobilizing Action

15. Making the Case for Change

Lloyd Axworthy 169

16. Managing the Reform Agenda: A Call for Timely Action

Jean Ping 177

Conclusion

17. The Way Forward Paul Heinbecker 189

Notes on Contributors 189

Appendix: Conference Agenda 193