

Reforming from the Top: A Leaders' 20 Summit

John English, Ramesh Thakur and Andrew F. Cooper

Table of Contents

Figures vii

List of Contributors viii

Acknowledgements xiv

List of abbreviations xix

Introduction: Reforming the International System from the Top: A Leaders' 20 Summit

Andrew F. Cooper and John English 1

1 Making Change Happen at the Global Level

Barry Carin and Gordon Smith 25

2 Anticipating the Future: A Political Agenda for Global Economic Governance

Colin I. Bradford, Jr 46

3 A Leaders' 20 Summit?

Angel Gurría 63

4 Multilateralism and the Limits of Global Governance

Richard Higgott 72

5 Balancing Act: Japan's Strategy in Global and Regional Financial Governance

Saori N. Katada 97

6 The Political Economy of Dissent: Global Publics After Cancun

Daniel Drache 121

7 Toward Multilateral Reform: The G20's Contribution

John Kirton 141

8 On Sherpas and Coolies: The L20 and Non-Brahmanical Futures

Yoginder K. Alagh 169

9 China's Evolving Global View

Yu Yongding 187

10 Brazil's Multiple Forms of External Engagement: Foreign Policy Dilemmas

Ricardo Sennes and Alexandre de Freitas Barbos 201

11 South Africa: Beyond the Impasse in Global Governance

Ian Taylor 230

12 The L20 and the Restructuring of the International Economic Order: An Egyptian Perspective

Abdel Moneim Said Aly 260

13 Government Networks, World Order, and the L20

Anne-Marie Slaughter 281

14 The L20 in the 21st Century

Ramesh Thakur and Andrew S. Thompson 296

Index 312